

The Voice Sri Lanka has been trending all over and has been mesmerizing audiences' world back and, is back again.

Season Two of 'The Voice' will start airing on Sirasa TV every weekend from 22nd October at 830 PM, so don't forget to tune in and be taken on a melodic journey with some amazing Sri Lankan talent.

Based on the original The Voice of Holland by John de Mol Jr. and part of The Voice franchise, The Voice was introduced to Sri Lanka by Sirasa TV via The Voice Sri Lanka and The Voice Teen.

The Voice is more competitive and brings fresh talent to the stage and this is the main reason why The Voice has been captivating Sri Lankan audiences every weekend on Television, and on online platforms.

Many songs of the new generation, as well as the old generation, will be performed by the contestants appearing on The Voice.

Veteran vocalists Bhathiya Santhush, Shashika Nisansala, Kasun Kalhara, and Umara Sinhawansa are the coaches of The Voice.

The program is hosted by popular actor Sumiran Dhananjaya Gunasekara.

56 programs will go on air as part of Season Two of The Voice Sri Lanka for six months as Blind Auditions, Battles, Knockouts, Super Knockouts, Live Shows, Quarter Finals, Semi Final, and Final.

Like the previous phase, all the programs will be recorded in South Asia's largest studio complex, Stein Studios, with unparalleled technology and the harmony of a huge professional production team.

Don't miss out on the wonders of the reality journey that the Sri Lankan Voices bring to the world, watch Sirasa TV every weekend from 22nd October at 8.30 PM to be blown away.
